Friday 27 November 2026 - Jorja Smith today adds a new chapter to her third album with the release of 'What Are The Odds (The Afterparty)' via FAMM. The expanded 16-track edition brings together the original album and a new four-track second disc, featuring three collaborative remixes alongside 'Dancing (Unplugged)'.

Leading the release is 'I Lied, You Lied (The Funky Remix)', bringing Jorja together with UK dance music trailblazers Katy B and MALIKA. On 'What's Done Is Done (The Grime Remix)', Jorja unites with formidable rapper Nadia Rose and grime icons JME and D Double E for a major UK link-up. Completing the trio, Zambian-Scottish DJ and producer KILIMANJARO puts his own stamp on 'Alive', Jorja's collaboration with global Afrobeats star Wizkid. The three remixes also arrive as standalone single products exclusively on Spotify.
