NORTH AMERICAN DATES SUPPORTING NIA ARCHIVES - NOV 6-13

BAMBII returns with "Drop," another high-energy, genre blending track that further establishes her as one of the most exciting, forward thinking electronic artists. Combining her signature sweet vocals with a heavy-hitting bassline, "Drop" is a track perfected for the club and everywhere in between.

The track is accompanied by another incredible music video directed by Bambii and featuring once again a group of her fans.

"Drop" continues to showcase her ability to blend diverse influences into a boundary pushing sound.

BAMBII is a Canadian-Caribbean DJ, record producer and songwriter whose genre-spanning club music draws on her Jamaican heritage and Toronto's diasporic music scenes.

Her 2023 EP INFINITY CLUB won the JUNO Award for Electronic Album of the Year and was shortlisted for the 2024 Polaris Music Prize. The 2025 follow-up, INFINITY CLUB II, featured the likes of Ravyn Lenae, Jeleel! and Yaeji, alongside Jessy Lanza, Aluna and others. In 2026, she has continued by releasing a series of standalone club-focused singles, including "Hot Girls," "Level Up" and "Touch Down."

BAMBII has built an international touring profile, performing at major festivals including Coachella, Glastonbury, All Points East and Primavera Sound. Her touring has included dates with Jamie xx, and she is set to support Nia Archives on her North American tour in November 2026. She also founded JERK, a long-running Toronto party series celebrating Caribbean and global club music, which has travelled to Halifax, Los Angeles, New York and Montreal.

Her production and collaboration credits include work with Kelela, Shygirl, JT and Yaeji. They include additional production on JT's "Numb," a contribution to Shygirl's "Flex," and a featured performance and production credit on Zara Larsson and Madison Beer's "The Ambition (Girls Trip)." BAMBII has been profiled by publications including The Cut, Pitchfork and DJ Mag.
